

The circulation of The Review covers the field like the evening dew; several times larger than the combined newspapers of High Point, being read in practically every home in the city and in the suburbs. Advertisers take notice.

THE REVIEW

"High Point for High Point;" that's the slogan. Keep your money in High Point; trade with High Point merchants; buy everything you can in High Point at all times; that's the foundation for a Greater High Point.

The Review is read and appreciated by that large body of people who buy four-fifths of the goods sold in High Point--the laboring people

What a Queer Looking Sight It Would Be.

(By W. H. Dugdale.)
In this age of queer things we are never amazed
At the things that our neighbors may do;
Sometimes we are looking for things that are old
And often get something quite new.
In High Point of late some improvements were made,
And some wonderful things we may see;
When the white way's finished and the lights are turned on,
What a queer looking sight it will be.
If Mayor Tate would change places with Benjamin Moore,
And Simmons change places with Snew;
If Steele was to go into business with Greene
And Will Ragan assist Doctor Coe;
If Moffitt joined issues with J. Elwood Cox
And Harry K. Thaw would go free,
If High Point's industries were all on a boom,
What a queer looking sight it would be.
If Loflin changed places with W. C. York
And read all the meters in town;
If V. W. Idol changed places with Ring
And Penny changed places with Brown;
If John Wilborn changed places with Hart
And Judge Peacock changed places with McGhee;
If the city would get a street sweeping machine,
What a queer looking sight it would be.
If Broad street was paved from the depot to Main
And the freight trains quit blocking the streets;
If people would place their garbage in cans
And help keep our streets clean and neat;
If each does his part we will get good results
What improvement to health it would be;
If Johnson and Dunlap were partners in trade
What a queer looking sight it would be.
If Professor T. Haynes would change places with Mann,
And would furnish us goods in the trade
It would not be long till the people found out
That some kind of a mixup was made.
If Bennett and Matton were partners in trade
There would surely be something to see;
As friend against friend in the battle for trade,
What a queer looking sight it would be.
If all the big factories would start on full time
And every man made a full pay,
As prosperity feeds the issue along
And we trust it is with us to stay.
Fight manfully onward to bring this about,
And some wonderful things you will see;
If people would only help boost things along,
What a queer looking sight it would be.

University Extension.

The University of North Carolina, like that of Wisconsin, Kansas and some other states, is bringing university education to the people. It offers information in a wide variety of ways.

The Woman's Club of High Point is taking advantage of this fact and has arranged for a series of five lectures on vital topics. These are to be given Friday nights at 8 o'clock at the auditorium. The Woman's Club pays all expenses and offers the lectures to the public absolutely free. It only asks for a good house to greet each speaker.

Next Friday, the 19th, Prof. E. C. Branson, an expert in education, will give his lecture, "Come, Let Us Live With Our Children," and the following week, on the 26th, Prof. McKee will entertain us with Recitals from Modern American Humorsists.

Attend the indignation meeting tonight at the auditorium, 7:30 o'clock.

Monday morning in recorder's court G. Briggs, Will Gailey, Bruce Hamlin and Floyd Crowson were found guilty in two cases each of chicken stealing and given four months on the county roads.

E. T. Hedrick has been given the contract for an eight-room house on East Russell street for M. T. Kearns. The old home will be moved off of the lot to make room for the new one.

Drs. D. A. Stanton and J. T. Burrus left for Charleston Monday to attend the meeting of the Tri-State Medical society.

The many friends of Mrs. D. H. Ritenberry will regret to learn of her critical illness.

H. A. Hulleman is quite ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Robins.

Edward P. Parker will soon commence the erection of a modern dwelling on Lindsay street.

Simon Massey, negro who suffered a broken jaw a few months ago while blasting stumps with dynamite on the C. H. Thacker's farm, near the city, was in town Monday. By wearing a special appliance he says he did not lose a single tooth in breaking or in the setting of the jaw. At the time of the accident he narrowly escaped death.

Notice has been given of the pardon of Gurney Wade, son of John Wade, who is serving a road sentence for retailing.

Drinking Fountains.

Three new drinking fountains for the people to drink from have been installed—one at the postoffice corner, one at the corner of East Washington and N. Main and the other at the depot square. All you have to do is to put your foot on the pedestal and up comes a stream of water. Your lips do not touch anything but the pure water, consequently the drinking fountains are perfectly sanitary. Drinking fountains for animals have been installed for some time. Mayor Tate and the city officials deserve much praise for this work.

Summary of News in The Review This Week.

Child labor passed in congress by house barring products of children from interstate commerce.
Cotton reports during January exceeded those of January, 1913, by more than 300,000 bales.
Germany says England is cause of whole trouble with merchantmen.
Germany reply to American note is firm though friendly.
The North Carolina General Assembly has been very busy during the past week and some work has been done, especially on the revenue and prohibition bills and some other statewide measures.
Prices paid in this state during the past week for cotton, cotton seed, corn, etc.
Report on tobacco sale in this state during January.
An official weather forecast for the coming week.
High Point, N. C., in a nutshell.

Whirled to Death.

Winston-Salem, Feb. 16.—Oscar Spangh, aged 17 years, was suddenly killed about six miles from here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when he was caught by a belt which he was trying to put on the fly-wheel of a saw mill engine. When he was caught and carried around the first time he struck the belt running the governors and knocked it off. The governors did not shut off the steam and the unloaded engine ran at a terrific speed.

Necessary arrangements for holding the banquet at the Manufacturers' Club on the night of February 25th have been made. The banquet will not include the ladies this year as it is intended to be a strictly business proposition. Seats will be prepared for 150 persons. Fifty new members joined the club Saturday.

Charles Switzer, of Greenville, S. C., purchased the bankrupt stock of the Dixie department stores here.

The final canvas for the subscriptions for the Asheboro road is being made. It is the purpose to raise at least $1,200 and the work of the High Point-Archdale-Randleman-Asheboro high will begin March 1st.

A. E. Tate attended a meeting of the state hospital board at Morganton last week.

If you want to do your own voting and not let the legislature "vote" men on you, over your heads, go to the auditorium tonight and show how you stand.

Read the big page ad. telling of The Fair bankrupt stock in today's paper. Kirkman and Freeze will treat you right.

If you want to attend an interesting and profitable occasion go to the Washington birthday exercises Wednesday night, Feb. 24th by Chickasaw Tribe in their wigwam. Bring a friend or two, your best girl, sister or mother.

Hurrah for the public drinking fountains and white way. We are now up with any of them.

Mr. J. R. Griffith, Route 2, Thomasville, was a welcome visitor to our office yesterday. He runs the Ob-long dairy and is doing well, glad to know. He renewed his subscription while here.

High Point people attending the play in Greensboro Monday evening were Misses Clara and Hazel Harmon, Ernest Wall, Gurney Briggs, Mrs. Ed. Millis, Mrs. Mrs. Albion Millis, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Robert Sechrest, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armfield, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armfield, Mr. and Mrs. Vassie Wilson, Misses Earlington and Martin, Mr. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Wishart, Robert Amos, Miss Holt, Dr. Clayton, Miss Faith Willis, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ragan, Dr. Coe, Miss Isla Marshall, Miss Peterson, Dr. Staley and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Prince.

The younger set of the city have arranged for organization of a Cotillion club and held their first meeting Wednesday night at the Elks' club rooms.

HIGH POINT, N. C.

Leading Furniture Manufacturing City in the United States.

County seat of Guilford.
Population (with suburbs) 15,000.

On Southern and Carolina & Yadkin River Railways.
Half way between Washington and Atlanta.

Altitude 940 feet above sea level.

Twenty passenger trains daily.
Eighty manufacturing plants—50 furniture factories.

Largest lumber plant in South.
Only city manufacturing electric cars south of Wilmington, Delaware.

A "great white way."

Liberal inducements offered all manufacturing and other business enterprises.

Fine banking and educational facilities.

Healthy climate and congenial citizenship.

Come South and grow prosperous with us. This section is fraught with golden opportunities.

Exercises by Red Men.

Next Wednesday night in their wigwam the Red Men of the city will observe Washington's Birthday with appropriate exercises. Washington was the first Schemer of the Order. Prof. D. M. Weatherly, of Franklinville, will be the principal speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend. Exercises begin at 7:45.

The Honor Roll--Get On It

The Review acknowledges receipt of following subscriptions paid since last issue:

R. B. White, J. R. Griffith, J. F. Bain, Lee Howell, E. F. Runckee.

We return many thanks for the favor—the money is needed. Whose names will appear on the honor roll next week?

If you don't want the legislature to disfranchise you lend your presence at the big mass meeting at the auditorium tonight.

Large number of people have passed through the North of Bay Counties exhibit cars in the time they have been out, and thinking people are always pleased. Here next week.

We call attention to the ad. of the High Point Floral Co. in this issue. Patronize a home industry—be a loyal citizen.

Carter vs. Abernethy Case in Legislature.

Raleigh, Feb. 17.—Only a cyclone can head off the Carter-Abernethy matter tomorrow and just one chance to keep it from the legislature is admitted to exist tonight.

President Hobbs to Give Up His Work.

Greensboro, Feb. 17.—Pres. L. L. Hobbs has resigned as head of Guilford College and will be succeeded at the end of the school year by Dr. Thomas Newlin, now president of Whittier College, Pasadena, Cal., formerly dean of Guilford. Dr. Hobbs has been president of Guilford thirty years, and is one of the state's prominent educators. His successor is a splendidly equipped man.

Anti-Jug Bill Gets Favorable Report

Raleigh, Feb. 17.—The house committee killed the crop lien law demanded of the Farmers' Union tonight, but the senate reported it favorably. It stands a chance therefore to reach the lower house.

The opposition to the repeal of this law was amazingly large among senators not on the committee. It is scheduled for rough sledding.

To Hear High Point Friday

Mayor Tate has arranged with the committee on cities, towns and counties to have the hearing on the proposed commission form of government for High Point Friday (tomorrow.) Quite a crowd from here will go down, no doubt.

All friends of good government for High Point and against being disfranchised, and who can possibly go to Raleigh tomorrow morning, should do so to register their disapproval of any such attempt.

Be sure to go to the indignation meeting tonight at the auditorium, 7:30 o'clock.

Store Building Remodeled.

Thacker's shoe store, in addition to having been lengthened 45 feet, is being remodeled on the inside by a metal ceiling, new papered walls, etc., and when completed will present a very neat appearance. The gent's furnishing department will be in the rear in charge of Mr. Stone and the shoe department in front.

The White Way.

Manager Jennings, of the N. C. Public Service Company, informs the editor that he is ready to turn the juice on that will cause the 300 great white lights to blaze forth in all their glory on the "white way," but will be delayed a day or so on the big globes and fixtures, a solid car of them, which is due the last of the week, and it is probable that the lights will be turned on next week early. Mr. Jennings is a hustler and is just as anxious to see the work under his care "speak for itself" as the other citizens.

The California cars hers Feb. 22, 23, 24 and 25 will give our people a treat such as they probably may never have again and the old and young should not miss it for the small price asked, and the beautiful souvenir they will get as a reminder of their visit, FREE.

A Very Fine Sentiment.

The editor of The Review has received a card from Mr. W. J. Armfield, Sr., announcing his 71st birthday with an appropriate offering entitled "My Swan Song," which reads as follows:

"At the age of 71, I can truly say the world has been good to me. The days are very beautiful and life still has its charm. I hear the music of the winds, read poems in the sunny landscape and see pictures in the stormy clouds. God rules and is merciful."

It is a very fine sentiment from a very fine gentleman and here's hoping that he may be able to write it 81 and then some, and as he travels the road to the great beyond may his pathway be strewn with flowers and his eyes continue to behold nature's greatest charms all around him.

Negro Reported to Have Been Slayer of a Deputy.

Sheriff Stafford is in receipt of a letter from the authorities at Edgerton, W. Va., asking if a negro named John Cide, who is held under arrest there, was wanted here for the murder of a deputy sheriff named William Scott, the crime supposed to have been committed about ten years ago.

Kaiser to Apologize Personally to Gerard.

Basel, Switzerland, Feb. 17, via Paris, 5:30 p. m.—Emperor William will apologize personally to James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, for the hostile demonstration which occurred in a Berlin theater on the evening of February 9, according to a telegram received here today from Berlin.

Remember the big shark and big fruits are to be here Feb. 22, 23, 24 and 25. Go early and avoid the rush, as they are always crowded afternoons and evenings.

Just Between Ourselves and The Lamppost

This is a little heart to heart talk. It's meant for the business men of this territory, for those who advertise and for those who ought to.

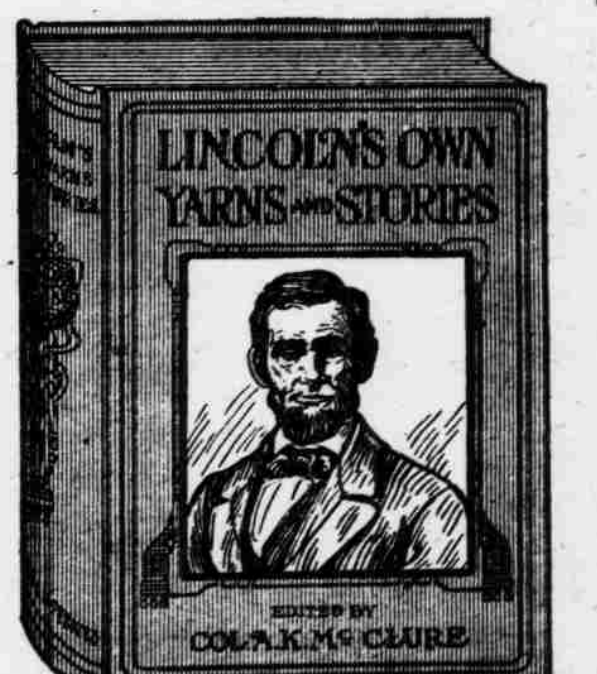

Friend, you must make your customers buy from you MENTALLY before they purchase in ACTUALITY.

You must arouse and interest the mind before you can reach the pocketbook. Thought precedes action.

Make the FAMILY CIRCLE a SHOPPING CENTER. First go after the money spent mentally by the fireside. Get your selling story ready for the psychological buying moment. Make it as effective as you know how. Give it a PUNCH. Make every feature a VITAL FACT. List the DETAILS. The people want to know all you have to say. Tell the WHOLE story. Hammer your persuasion home. The results then lie between your competitor and yourself.

Remember, this newspaper takes you into the homes of the BUYING class of people. You can tell your story where it will do the most good. Tell it the WINNING way. We'll help you put ZING into your business too.

LINCOLN'S OWN YARNS AND STORIES.
